Here there be Monsters!

What you are about to experience in the following pages is born out of need and desire. This need and desire spring from a securely human condition, but the results are most inhuman!

It is autumn in the year 2009. As the air grows crisp and All Hallow's Eve encroaches, a call goes forth into the electronic ether...It is a call for Monsters!

Forced by strange obsession to create these unholy abominations, an artist toils under the requests of anyone who would hope to call a monster or creature their own.

At times, those who still hold a glimmer of hope for humanity make the request for a hero, or a woman of fine beauty. But every light casts a shadow, and with every shadow a monster is born!

These ghastly craven images are quickly distributed across the countryside and even to the farthest reaches of the globe.

Take heed this warning: women with child and those with coronary or emotional weakness should travel no further down this path. Every page you turn from henceforth is at your own risk!
